

Scripture Searcher

July 2025 Preview

Adult

Recommended for ages 13+

From the opening pages of the Word of God, all the way through to the very end, we the enemy's attempts to minimize, distort, and justify sin – to make it accepted and normal. In the garden, Satan questioned God's word ("hath God said...?"), and minimized the impact that sin would have ("ye shall not surely die"). Even after witnessing the judgement and destruction that fell on Sodom, Lot still longed for just a little bit of the city he had grown so accustomed to. The lawyer in Luke that asked the Lord about his neighbor wasn't looking to find who he could help, but he was asking in an attempt to "justify himself" – to find a loophole that meant the law he had just quoted didn't actually apply to him.

We all know the power of sin in this world, and the hold it has over the old nature we all have. How often, though, do we find ourselves minimizing or excusing it? How often are we indifferent to the presence of sin around us just because it's become so common in the world that we walk through?

Instructions

Start reading at the beginning of the book of Genesis. When you find the short phrase for each day, write down the book, chapter, and verse in the blanks provided. The next day, continue reading from where you stopped the day before.

The distance you read to find each entry will vary. On average, it'll be about 85 verses per day, but it may occasionally be as short as 39, or as long as 129 verses.

When you reach the end of a book, check the top of the section to see which book you should start reading next. You'll jump back and forth between the Old and New Testaments, and between history, prophecy, and instruction. By the time you finish the entire booklet, you'll have read through the entire Bible once... all 31,102 verses of it.

This page is just a preview of the first month. Don't forget to ask us to send you the complete booklet so you can continue with the rest of the year. See the bottom of this page for information on how to contact us.

Important

All verses quoted are from the King James Version (KJV) of the Bible.

Do not use a concordance, computer, or anything else to help you find the verses.

Do not copy your answers from anyone else.

The purpose of the Scripture Searcher booklet is to help you establish (or maintain) the habit of reading God's word every day. By quickly looking up the phrases in a concordance or computer, or by copying from someone else, you may cheat your way to a prize – but you'll also cheat yourself out of the benefits to your own soul.
