

Scripture Searcher

July 2021 Preview

Youth

Recommended for ages 8 - 16

When Lot had to choose a direction for his life, he “lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where.” His gaze revealed what he truly valued, and it’s not long until we see the end result and find him pitching his tent toward Sodom. When Peter was walking on the water, he took his eyes off the Lord, and was distracted by the storm around him. He “saw the wind boisterous”; he grew scared and began to doubt; and he started to sink.

The enemy of our souls would like nothing better than to draw our focus back to this world, and to defile, distract, and discourage us through the things that we see. It’s only by actively turning our eyes away from the world, and by focusing on our Lord and on His things, that we can begin to see the things of this world in their proper perspective.

Start reading at the beginning of Deuteronomy.

Instructions

Start reading at the beginning of the book of Deuteronomy. When you find the short phrase for each day, write down the chapter and verse in the blanks provided. The next day, continue reading from where you stopped the day before.

The distance you read to find each entry will vary. On average, it’ll be about 43 verses per day, but it may occasionally be as short as 20, or as long as 69 verses.

When you reach the end of a book, check the next day to see which book you should start reading next. You’ll jump back and forth between the Old and New Testaments, and between history, prophecy, and instruction. By the time you finish the entire booklet, you’ll have read through over half of the Bible... 15,586 verses in all.

This page is just a preview of the first month. Don’t forget to ask us to send you the complete booklet so you can continue with the rest of the year. See the bottom of this page for information on how to contact us.

Important

All verses quoted are from the King James Version (KJV) of the Bible.

Do not use a concordance, computer, or anything else to help you find the verses.

Do not copy your answers from anyone else.

The purpose of the Scripture Searcher booklet is to help you establish (or maintain) the habit of reading God’s word every day. By quickly looking up the phrases in a concordance or computer, or by copying from someone else, you may cheat your way to a prize, but you’ll also cheat yourself out of the benefits to your own soul.
